ABOUT MYSELF

I am an engineer with a strong focus in the field of software, driven by a problem-solving mindset and a commitment to developing user-friendly solutions. Over one year of professional experience, I have contributed to projects by prioritizing user experience and adding value through innovative approaches. During my master's studies, I worked on artificial intelligence projects using Python, gaining expertise in areas like data analysis and machine learning. I am passionate about leveraging technology to create impactful, creative solutions and dedicated to continuous learning. With a solid foundation in project management and attention to detail, I bring a strong skill set to every project.
